Undergraduate Degree Completion Program
Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies

For adults who possess up to 90 semester hours of transferable credit but have not completed a degree, the bachelor of arts in interdisciplinary studies program offers a unique opportunity to earn a degree that is compatible with almost every professional setting and prepares graduates to apply for challenging graduate programs.

Focusing on critical-thinking, problem-solving, communication and technology skills that today's employers seek for building effective cross-functional teams, the bachelor of interdisciplinary studies curriculum provides the elements of a classical education that allow students to better identify, analyze and understand the issues and challenges that cross ethnic, regional and global boundaries.
